

Monadnock Institute of Nature, Place and Culture

Franklin Pierce University

Beyond the Notches offers a collection of stories about New Hampshire's North County that illustrates the enduring relationship between the land and community. This volume takes us deeper into the stunning landscapes and resilient lives that have created this remarkable and evolving place. Please join us in celebrating this special region.

Your contribution to this anthology project will make it possible to publish this volume using full-color throughout at a price that makes it accessible to every interested resident. If you choose to, your name will be included in the final printed version of Beyond the Notches. To make your contribution, please select from the options below:
